Purpose and Objectives

Lycoming College devotes itself to the vocation of humanity: the vocation that enables man to become aware of what it means to love truth, goodness and beauty, by fostering free inquiry and learning in a curricular experience that provides basic knowledge of the cultural, social and natural world, developing searching, critical, and creative attitudes of mind, encouraging cultural explorations essential to a free society, affirming the Christian faith as a valid interpretation of the vocation of humanity, developing an appreciation for the values of social, mental and physical well-being, and preparing students for professional and vocational opportunities that may be pursued upon a more humanitarian level because of foundations laid by a strong liberal education.

"Vocation of humanity" suggests that the primary concern of The College is human life and living. We find this concern manifesting itself, in a Christian setting, as an affirmation of the fundamental dignity and worth of all human beings. The entire program of The College is directed toward fulfillment of objectives that seek to fit young men and women for "the living of these days," in a global society in which the priceless commodity is human life. Lycoming College redefined its educational mission in 1960 by the formulation of the specific objectives above. It now faces the decade ahead with the confidence that man's best chance for survival lies in wisdom, knowledge, and understanding borne of liberal education.

History

While the specific objectives of The College have varied somewhat with the changing years, its purpose of providing educational opportunities for young men and women has remained consistent throughout the 150 years of its history.

Founded in 1812 as Williamsport Academy, it is the oldest educational institution in the city of Williamsport. At first, the Academy served only the young through what are now recognized as the elementary grades. With the advent of public schools in the city, the Academy expanded its curricular offerings to include high school and college preparatory work.

In 1848, under the patronage of The Methodist Episcopal Church, the Academy became Williamsport-Dickinson Seminary. The Seminary continued as a private boarding school until 1929 when once again its offerings were expanded to include the first two years of college work. This expansion resulted in a change of the institution's name to Williamsport Dickinson Junior College. During its years as a junior college under President John W. Long, the institution forged a strong academic reputation, strengthened its faculty and expanded its physical plant.

Increasing national demands for higher education following World War II prompted another significant step in the growth of the institution. In 1948, the junior college became Lycoming, a four-year degree-granting college of liberal arts and sciences. The name Lycoming is derived from an Indian word "lacomic" meaning "Great Stream." It is a name that has been common to north central Pennsylvania since colonial times and is an appropriate one for a school whose purpose has been consistently that of educating the area's young men and women. Through fulfillment of its specific objectives, it has been and continues to be an influential voice in the educational, cultural and spiritual development of the entire north central Pennsylvania region.

Locale

Lycoming College is situated upon a slight prominence in downtown Williamsport, Pennsylvania, overlooking the beautiful West Branch Valley of the Susquehanna River. The city has a population of some forty-five thousand who quite generally consider The College one of their finest assets.

Williamsport was once the center of the lumbering industry of the northeastern United States and, while some vestiges of that enterprise remain, the mid-twentieth century finds the city expanding with many widely diversified industries.

The area around Williamsport is famous for its beautiful mountain scenery and fine outdoor recreational facilities. Every year, thousands are attracted to the wooded mountain sides and crystal-clear streams where the outdoor sports, hunting and fishing, are unsurpassed. The city has two large parks, a municipal golf course, tennis courts and numerous playgrounds. Public education is represented by excellent schools both in the city and in the surrounding townships and boroughs. Many cultural opportunities are provided by Lycoming College, the Civic Choir, the Community Arts Festival and the Community Concert Association. Eighty-eight churches representing a number of denominations minister to the spiritual needs of the community.

Within America's industrial Northeast, Williamsport is indeed centrally located. It is approximately two-hundred miles from the major urban centers of the region: Washington, D. C., Baltimore, Philadelphia, New York, Syracuse, Rochester, Buffalo and Pittsburgh. The city is easily accessible by airline, train, bus and automobile. Allegheny, United and Trans World Airlines provide some twenty flights daily with direct passenger service to virtually all Pennsylvania cities as well as New York, Albany, Rochester, Buffalo, Boston, Providence, Cleveland, Detroit and Washington, D. C. The Pennsylvania Railroad offers daily passenger service to Buffalo, Harrisburg, and Washington with connections at Harrisburg to all major cities. Greyhound Bus Lines and Edwards Lakes to Sea System operate daily schedules to all points. U. S. Highways 15 and 220 are routed through the Williamsport area as are State Highways 14, 87 and 118. The new Interstate Highway 80, The Keystone Shortway, will cross the state just a few miles south of Williamsport.

Traditions

The long and enduring history of Lycoming and the attractive geographic setting combine to provide fertile ground for the seeds of enriching expansion, a factor that has become one of the College's major traditions. To be sure, the alumni nostalgically remember "Old Main" and the other buildings, but what seems most characteristic of their college is its amazing capacity for growth: growth that continues to meet the demands of our changing society and its evolving culture.

Through more than a century of its history, The College has had the stabilizing influence of The Methodist Church. The evolution of Lycoming from its origins to its present status has been accomplished with the continuous conviction that a Christian philosophy of life is the proper leaven of higher education. Lycoming strives to foster a Christian atmosphere in all aspects of the college program and to stress the development and practice of a Christian way of life.

Lycoming College is owned by the Preacher's Aid Society of The Central Pennsylvania Annual Conference of The Methodist Church. The faculty and students express their religious convictions through membership and participation in the churches of almost thirty Protestant denominations as well as the Roman Catholic and Hebrew faiths. Significant opportunities are offered every student for personal expression of religious faith. Loyalty to the church of one's choice is encouraged.

Lycoming College firmly believes in Christian higher education. One of its major objectives is continuous affirmation of the validity of the Christain faith as a way of life. Fulfillment of this objective is accomplished by the support of a strong Department of Religion. This department was established through the generosity of the late Honorable M. B. Rich, for eighteen years President of the Board of Directors.

An emphasis upon Christian worship and thought is also offered by the weekly Chapel Program. It brings to the campus outstanding religious leaders who share with the Student Body the best in contemporary religious thinking. Chapel has become a strong tradition on the Lycoming campus. Attendance is required of all students who are enrolled full-time. Students are expected to attend The Chapel on a regularly scheduled basis on at least fifteen occasions throughout any one college year.

During the first few weeks of the second semester, an annual week of religious emphasis is held. The week is under the sponsorship of the Religious Life Council. Students and faculty discuss together common problems in some aspect of religious experience with the objective of stimulating enriched interest throughout the campus community.

Admissions

ADMISSIONS POLICY

The policy of Lycoming College is to admit applicants who, in the opinion of the Admissions Committee, are best qualified to profit by the opportunities offered by the College, and who can at the same time make positive contributions to undergraduate life. Due consideration is given not only to academic attainment, as evidenced by school records and examinations, but also to the applicant's character, personality, and interest and accomplishments in extra-curricular pursuits.

Admission to Lycoming College is on a competitive basis. Early application, while encouraged, does not assure admission.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

Persons desiring to apply for admission should request official forms from the Director of Admissions.

The Admissions Office compiles a personal file for each applicant and the following items must be submitted before final acceptance is approved:

- 1. Application for Admission and secondary school record on forms supplied by the College. A registration fee of $10.00 must accompany each application. This fee is not refundable.
- 2. A small recent photograph (approximately $2'' \times 3''$) of the applicant.
- 3. The Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board. Applicants wishing to enter the College in September should arrange to take these examinations no later than February of their senior year.

The responsibility for arranging to take these examinations rests with the applicant. However, the Director of Admissions will be glad to advise any applicant on this matter if requested.

In addition to the above, all applicants are required to visit the campus and to meet with the Director of Admissions or a representative of the Admissions Office. This conference provides an opportunity for reviewing the applicant's academic record, discussing his (or her) plans, and answering questions.

Admissions 17

Following receipt of the above items, the Admissions Committee will determine those applicants who can be accepted. All applicants will be notified accordingly by letter as promptly as possible. Action of the Admissions Committee must be regarded as final.

THE COLLEGE ENTRANCE EXAMINATION BOARD TESTS

During the academic year 1961-62, the College Entrance Examination Board will administer the Scholastic Aptitude Tests on each of the dates listed below. The deadline for application is approximately one month prior to the test date.

Date of Tests

Saturday, December 2, 1961

Saturday, January 13, 1962

Saturday, March 3, 1962

Saturday, May 19, 1962

Wednesday, August 8, 1962

Applicants should consult with their high school counsellors concerning the details of registering for the tests, or write directly to the College Entrance Examination Board, P. O. Box 592, Princeton, New Jersey, requesting the Bulletin of Information. This bulletin, obtainable without charge, contains rules regarding applications, fees, reports, and the conduct of the tests; lists of examination centers and an application blank are bound in it. The completed blank should be returned to the College Board office promptly. The applicant will then be supplied with further information about the tests and his ticket of admission to the test center he has specified. The results of the tests are sent directly to the college(s) listed by the applicant, but not to the applicant. Results are normally received by the Colleges three to four weeks following the test date.

A writing sample exercise will be offered by the College Board on December 2, 1961, and January 13, 1962. This is not a requirement for admission to Lycoming, but applicants who take this writing test are asked to have a copy of it submitted to this College.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

The usual evidence of academic preparation to enter Lycoming College is the satisfactory completion of 16 units of high school work, consisting of 4 units of English, and at least 2 of history, 2 of mathematics, 2 of science, and 5 elective units.

Cooperative engineering students and mathematics majors must include plane geometry as one of the two units of mathematics. A letter of recommendation from the applicant's private teacher and/or high school music supervisor should accompany the application of music majors.

EARLY DECISION PLAN

Lycoming College has adopted an Early Decision Plan which will permit the Director of Admissions to notify well qualified candidates at the beginning of their senior year in high school that their admission to the college is assured upon graduation. Further information concerning the Early Decision Plan or the regular programs of study offered at Lycoming can be obtained by writing to the Director of Admissions.

ADVANCED STANDING

A limited number of students with advanced standing may be admitted to Lycoming each year. The determining factors in considering such applicants will be their academic records at the previous college, their field of concentration, and the reasons prompting their desire to transfer. All transfer applicants must show evidence of honorable dismissal from their previous college(s), must submit an official transcript of all work taken at other colleges, copies of their current catalogues, and must come to the Campus for a personal interview. Upon acceptance, the transfer student should contact the Registrar to prepare a schedule of studies for the coming semester. A student admitted with advanced standing is required to complete at Lycoming the last thirty hours in order to qualify for a bachelor's degree. Transfer students must satisfy the College graduation requirements to be awarded a degree.

ADMISSION TO SUMMER SESSIONS AND EVENING CLASSES

Persons desiring admission to summer sessions or evening classes should apply to the Director of Admissions. All candidates for degrees must meet the same entrance requirements as those attending regular session day classes.

Applicants who hold degrees from other colleges or universities will be admitted as special students. Such applicants must present written evidence stating the field of concentration, the degree, and the date conferred.

Admissions 19

All other applicants who desire admission to specific courses will be considered on the basis of preparation and experience.

ADMISSIONS OFFICE

The Admissions Office is located on the Campus on the first floor of the Old Main Building. The office is open Monday through Friday from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., and on Saturday from 9 a. m. until noon. Appointments for interviews may be arranged by writing or calling the office. The telephone number is Williamsport 323-9411, Extension 12.

All applicants are required to visit the Campus if possible and to inspect the facilities of the College and meet with some of its officials. Appointments are not required, but visitors are advised to arrange for them if they wish to see particular members of the administrative staff or faculty.

Standards

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

The College offers courses of study leading to the degree of Bachelor of Arts. A minimum of 37 semester courses (normally 40 are expected) totaling at least 120 semester hours are required for graduation. A minimum of 15 courses shall be of 300-400 level. Among all courses, 25 or more must have been passed with a grade of C or better. A minimum cumulative grade point average of 1.80 is required for graduation.

Additional requirements are:

Four semester hours credit in Physical Education to be taken in the first two years (not included in the 120 academic hours).

Chapel credit for each fall and spring semester of attendance at Lycoming College.

A one-hour course in Orientation.

All financial obligations incurred at the College must be paid.

The work of the final year is to be taken at this College, except in the case of students enrolling in the cooperative programs in medical technology, engineering, or forestry.

GRADING SYSTEM

A credit hour is defined as one hour of classroom work, or the equivalent, each week during a full term of sixteen weeks. Ordinarily, two hours of laboratory work are rated as one credit hour.

Lycoming College uses the letter system of grading. "A" indicates work of highest excellence showing a superior grasp of the content, as well as independent and creative thinking in the course. "B" signifies better than average achievement wherein the student reveals insight and understanding. A grade of "C" is given for satisfactory achievement where the work has been of adequate quality and quantity. "C" is generally regarded as an average grade. A "D" grade indicates that the student has met the minimum requirements of the course. "F" is the failing grade, and the student receives neither credits nor quality points for courses carrying an "F" grade. A student must repeat all required courses for which he receives an "F" grade.

Standards 21

Scholastic rank is determined by the quality point system. A grade of "A" carries 4 quality points per semester hour. "B" carries 3, "C" carries 2, "D" carries 1, and "F" carries 0. A student's scholastic or grade-point average is computed by dividing total quality points earned by total credits scheduled, including those failed, if any.

ACADEMIC HONORS

Students who have demonstrated high intellectual achievement throughout their college years may have the degree conferred upon them "with honors." To be eligible for such honors, a student must have passed at least ninety semester hours of academic work at Lycoming College.

The Bachelor of Arts degree, summa cum laude, shall be conferred upon students who have a grade-point average for their entire college course from 3.90 to 4.00.

The Bachelor of Arts degree, magna cum laude, shall be conferred upon students who have a grade-point average for their entire college course from 3.50 through 3.89.

The Bachelor of Arts degree, cum laude, shall be conferred upon students who have a grade-point average for their entire college course from 3.25 through 3.49.

The Dean's List is issued at the close of every semester to give recognition to those students who have shown superior academic achievement. Students whose grade-point averages are 3.4 or above for any one semester are nominated to the Dean's List.

The Sachem is Lycoming's honor society. Eligibility for membership is based upon intellectual achievement. Any graduating student who has attended Lycoming College for at least six semesters and has attained a grade-point average of 3.50 or above, or any junior student who has attended Lycoming College for six semesters and has attained a grade-point average of 3.70 or above is eligible for membership. Announcements of election to membership and awarding of certificates take place annually during the June Commencement exercises.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

Admission to the Freshman Class: See requirements for admission to Lycoming College, Page 17.

Admission to the Sophomore Class: Twenty-three semester hours and a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 1.33.

Admission to the Junior Class: Fifty-four semester hours and a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 1.50. Satisfactory performance in written English, as judged by a proficiency examination administered by the English Department in the second semester of the sophomore year, is also a condition of admission to junior standing.

Admission to the Senior Class: Eighty-five semester hours and a minimum cumulative grade-point average of 1.67. No Junior may enter senior classification until all freshman, sophomore and junior required courses, including foreign language or mathematics where applicable, have been passed.

PROBATION

When the following situations occur, students are placed upon academic probation and have suspended all scholarship and grant-in-aid financial assistance, as well as the privilege of participating in organized extra-curricular activities.

Freshmen—when the grade-point average is less than 1.33 for any one semester and less than a cumulative 1.33 after two semesters.

Sophomores—when the grade-point average is less than 1.67 for any one semester and less than a cumulative 1.50 after four semesters.

Juniors—when the grade-point average is less than 2.00 for any one semester or less than a cumulative 1.67 after six semesters.

Seniors—when the grade-point average is less than 2.00 for any one semester.

ACADEMIC DISMISSAL

The serious step of academic dismissal is taken when, in the judgment of the Faculty Committee on Probation and Dismissal, a student has demonstrated an incompatability with the academic demands of the college. The committee is guided by the following principles:

- 1. Freshmen on probation whose cumulative grade point averages are 1.00 or above may be permitted to continue into the second year with the understanding that failure to achieve a cumulative grade-point average of 1.33 by the close of the first semester of the second year will result in academic dismissal. Attendance in the summer session in an effort to achieve the necessary grade-point average is strongly recommended.
- 2. Sophomores on probation who fail to achieve a grade-point average of 1.67 during the semester in which they are on probation may be given the privilege of continuing into the third year with the understanding that failure to achieve a cumulative grade-point average of 1.50 by the close of the first semester of the third year will result in academic dismissal.

Standards 23

- 3. Academic dismissal of juniors and seniors on probation will depend upon a review of the entire record.
- 4. The College reserves the right to dismiss any student whose grades are excessively low in any one semester. It also reserves the right to dismiss any student when such dismissal is in the best interests of The College.

CLASS ATTENDANCE

The academic program at Lycoming is based upon the assumption that there is value in class attendance for all students. Individual instructors have the privilege of establishing reasonable absence regulations in any given course. Responsibility for learning and observing these regulations rests with the student.

NORMAL STUDENT LOAD

All students who are degree candidates are expected to register for four or five academic courses in any one semester. Grade-point averages used to determine honors, Dean's List, probation and dismissal are based upon a minimum of twelve semester hours of academic work per semester.

Students who wish to carry more than the normal load of five academic courses may do so after securing written permission from the Dean of the College. Charges for the overload will be assessed the student at the rate of $35.00 for every semester hour in excess of five academic courses.

Degree Requirements

Lyconing College confers the Bachelor of Arts degree. Candidates for the Bachelor of Arts degree follow programs designed to fulfill the objectives of The College within the normal 120 semester hours (8 semesters) of college work. In every program the curricular experience provides a basic knowledge of the cultural, social, and natural world with emphasis upon the development of searching, critical, and creative attitudes of mind. Achievement of these objectives is sought by requiring of the student a core of general studies courses as well as a major of at least twenty-four semester hours.

ENGLISH COMPOSITION

Six hours of English composition are required of all students. It is assumed that satisfactory completion of these six hours of composition will allow for the establishment of a firm understanding of English language usage. It is further assumed that such understanding will be maintained during the remaining college years and beyond. The student is expected to use consistently good English in writing and speaking in all his college courses. He should recognize that a part of the grade evaluation for any course may depend upon the degree to which effective use is made of the English language. In order to determine further the student's consistency in the use of good English, the Department of English administers English Competence Examinations to all students during the second semester of their sophomore year. Students who do not attain satisfactory scores on these examinations must re-register for English composition (English 101) without credit in the next succeeding semester. They must then retake the English Competence Examinations in the second semester of the following year. Failure to achieve satisfactory scores for the second consecutive year will necessitate taking additional non-credit work in English composition to be followed by a third attempt in the English Competence Examinations. Inability to achieve a satisfactory score on the third attempt will result in academic dismissal from The College.

FOREIGN LANGUAGE OR MATHEMATICS

Experience in a foreign language or mathematics is required of all students. The level of achievement is adjudged to be completion of the second year college course in either area.

A. Foreign Language:

Students electing foreign language must meet the requirement of two years of French, German, Greek, Russian, or Spanish. The first year may be waived if the student demonstrates sufficient proficiency in the language by: (1) offering a satisfactory grade in an examination administered during Freshman Days; (2) offering a satisfactory grade in the Language Achievement Test of the College Board Examinations; or (3) offering acceptable transfer credits for an introductory course (two semesters) on the college level. Students who elect a foreign language and who present for admission to Lycoming College at least two years of that language on the high school level, but who do not qualify for waiver of the first year college course under the conditions described above are required to take the first year college course without credit unless 18 or more acceptable units were completed in high school, or to clect another language at the first year level.

Once a student has enrolled in an elementary or intermediate language sequence to fulfil a graduation requirement, credit for the first semester's work will be withheld until the second semester's work has been successfully completed.

B. Mathematics:

Students electing mathematics must meet the requirement of two years by taking College Algebra and Trigonometry (Mathematics 101-102) and Analytical Geometry and Differential Calculus (Mathematics 201-205) or Introduction to Modern Mathematics (Mathematics 207-208). The first year, Mathematics 101-102 may be waived if the student demonstrates some proficiency by offering a satisfactory grade on an examination administered during Freshman Days or if he presents acceptable transfer credits for the introductory sequence (two semesters) on the college level.

KNOWLEDGE OF THE CULTURAL, SOCIAL AND NATURAL WORLD

One of the objectives of The College specifies knowledge of the cultural, social and natural world as vital to the education of every student. Achievement of this objective is sought by requiring students to take a minimum of one year of work in a single department in each of the following broad areas or groups of departments.

- A. Literature in English, French, German, Russian or Spanish.
- B. Religion or Philosophy.
- C. Art, Music, or Speech (Drama).
- D. History or Political Science.
- E. Economics, Psychology or Sociology.
- F. Biology, Chemistry, Geology or Physics.

To add depth as well as breadth to his program of general studies, the student takes at least one course beyond the one-year sequence in the selected departments of at least three of the above groups.

THE MAJOR

Competence in a special area of academic work that may mean the satisfaction of certain vocational desires is to be sought in a major of at least twenty-four semester hours in one of the following:

American Civilization
Art
Biology
Business Administration
Accounting
Banking and Finance
General Business
Marketing and Retailing
Chemistry
Economics
English
French

German
History
Mathematics
Music
Philosophy
Physics
Political Science
Psychology
Religion
Russian
Sociology
Spanish

Special curricula, with majors in one of the areas listed above, are offered in teacher training, cooperative engineering, medical technology, cooperative forestry, and in preparation for professional education in dentistry, law, medicine, the Christian ministry and Christian education. Attention is also called to the fact that the majors in the areas listed above are suitable for preparation of the candidate for admission to graduate school.

PROGRAMS OF STUDY

A typical schedule of courses for the Freshman Year is outlined below.

Students will register for courses only after consultation with and approval of faculty advisers. It is expected that students will elect those courses recommended by the department in which the major is to be taken. Course selection will obviously vary considerably depending upon the curriculum, the major and student interests.

Programs of study leading to the Bachelor of Arts degree at Lycoming College are described in some detail in the following paragraphs. Each program calls for a variety of different courses. But ordinarily, the courses to be taken in the freshman year will conform closely to the general outline given above regardless of the curriculum chosen.

Curricula

PURPOSES OF THE CURRICULA

Courses of study in Lycoming College are designed to fulfill two specific but interrelated purposes. The first is to acquaint the student with the liberal arts heritage of human civilization and the American nation, and the second is to provide him an opportunity to explore from an elementary to an advanced level various subject matter fields that may fit him for a life's vocation or direct him toward professional or graduate schools.

The curricula are organized so that the basic purposes may be fulfilled simultaneously within the normal 120 semester hours (8 semesters) of college work.

THE DEPARTMENTAL MAJOR

Electing a major in college work depends upon a variety of factors. Preparation for a specific vocation will very often determine the major. But for the student who does not have a specific vocational aim, the choice of a major, which can be deferred until the beginning of the junior year in some cases, must depend upon other factors. Not the least important of these are the student's interest and aptitude. Every effort will be made through the counseling service offered by The College to determine the range of interests and aptitudes and thereby enable the student to come to a decision that will be best for him.

Because education is a continuous process that does not end at the completion of four years of college work, the student is encouraged, when aptitude and ability indicate probable success, to consider the opportunities available through graduate and professional studies. Listed below are a number of professional and graduate areas for which preparation may be secured at Lycoming College.

AMERICAN CIVILIZATION MAJOR

Recognizing the rich intellectual heritage associated with the founding and subsequent development of the American nation, the Departments of English and History in Lycoming College have established a combined English-History curriculum which focuses attention upon American civilization. Here the uniqueness of American democracy, cradled and nurtured on this continent, is stressed throughout. In order to achieve the deepest insight into the American scene, both historical and contemporary, the curriculum includes, in addition to those freshman and sophomore history and English requirements, twenty-four hours of 300- and 400- level English and history courses including History 359-360, American Social and Intellectual History, six advanced hours in American literature and not more than nine advanced hours in either subject. Students desiring a thorough background in American civilization in preparation for graduate work, the Christian ministry, civil or foreign service or teaching will find this a most attractive and exciting curriculum.

Curricula 29

PREPARATION FOR DENTAL SCHOOL

At least three years of pre-dental study are suggested before entry into a college of dentistry. However, many students prefer to defer their matriculation in a dental college until they have earned a Bachelor of Arts degree. The pre-dental curriculum is organized around the basic courses in biology, chemistry and physics. Electing a major in one of the natural sciences is the usual procedure. student should consult the catalogue of the college of dentistry to which he expects to apply so that all courses specifically required by that college of dentistry may be included in his program at Lycoming College. The modern practitioner of dentistry is not just a dentist. He is a human being dealing with other human personalities and as such must be conversant in a great variety of human experiences. For this reason, the pre-dental curriculum will be augmented with courses from many areas of academic work. In addition to the science courses, therefore, the pre-dental student will include in his curriculum courses from the fine arts, humanities and social sciences, as well as a foreign language.

COOPERATIVE CURRICULUM IN ENGINEERING

Consistent with increased attention being given nationally to engineering education, Lycoming College offers a cooperative curriculum combining the manifold advantages of a small liberal arts college with the training to be secured at an engineering school. By arrangement with Bucknell University and The Pennsylvania State University, the College offers a five-year program the first three years of which are spent at Lycoming and the final two at the engineering school. Upon completion of the first year at the engineering school, the student's record will be sent to Lycoming College, and if the work is satisfactory, Lycoming College will award the Bachelor of Arts degree. Upon the completion of the five-year program of studies, a Bachelor of Science in Engineering is awarded by the engineering school. Combined programs offer an opportunity for completion of studies in the following areas: Bucknell University: chemical, civil, electrical, or mechanical engineering; The Pennsylvania State University: aeronautical, civil, electrical, industrial, mechanical or sanitary engineering.

Prescribed work at Lycoming includes, in addition to the degree requirements outlined above, courses in chemistry, mathematics and physics. Because the demands of the engineering curricula may differ somewhat, a program of studies at Lycoming College will be designed for each student when his plans as to type of engineering program preferred have been finally fixed. The Director of the Division of Natural Science or a member of the teaching staff in the physical sciences will aid each cooperative engineering student in planning his program.

COOPERATIVE CURRICULUM IN FORESTRY

Lycoming College offers a program for forestry students which combines a strong liberal arts and science background with professional training in forestry at the Duke School of Forestry, Duke University, Durham, North Carolina.

The program as established is of five years' duration. A student electing to pursue this program of study will spend three years at Lycoming where he will meet the liberal arts degree requirements, including such subjects as English, a foreign language, biology, chemistry, physics, mathematics and economics.

Upon satisfactory completion of these three years' work at Lycoming College, the student will apply for admission to the Duke School of Forestry for one summer and two years of training in forestry. At the end of his first year at Duke, his record will be sent to Lycoming College. If the work be satisfactory for this fourth year in college, Lycoming will award the Bachelor of Arts degree. Upon the satisfactory completion of the second year in forestry school, the professional degree, Master of Forestry, will be awarded by Duke University.

PREPARATION FOR LAW SCHOOL

Many colleges of law require a Bachelor of Arts degree for admission. The four-year degree program in pre-law at Lycoming

Curricula 31

College provides a background for the prospective student of law. Requirements include courses in political science and history, but also specified is a wide range of subject matter, designed to acquaint the student with the vast scope of human experience. Students may expect to major in economics, history, political science, or related fields as they prepare for matriculation in law school. Individual programs are tailored to fit the student's needs as well as to meet the specific requirements of the law school to which he applies for admission.

PREPARATION FOR MEDICAL SCHOOL

This curriculum is organized around a solid foundation of the basic courses in biology, chemistry and physics. Pre-medical students usually major in one of the natural sciences. The student should be aware of the specific pre-medical course requirements demanded by the medical school to which he will apply so that all such requirements can be fitted properly into his curriculum at Lycoming College. Consistent with suggestions of the medical schools, a wide range of subject matter from the humanities, social sciences and fine arts are also to be included in the curriculum. Some students may matriculate in a college of medicine after three years of pre-medical work, but the more normal procedure is to elect four years of pre-medical study and enter the medical college with a Bachelor of Arts degree.

PREPARATION FOR THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY (Christian Ministry)

Young men and women called to the Christian ministry or related vocations will find the pre-ministerial curriculum at Lycoming College an exciting and challenging opportunity. Basic courses specified by the American Association of Theological Schools are virtually identical with the program of courses required for a Bachelor of Arts degree at Lycoming College. Such courses offer a wide range of subject matter presenting many opportunities for the eager pre-ministerial student to acquaint himself with the broad scope of human experience. Preparation for seminary includes earning a Bachelor of Arts degree with a major in one of a variety of fields such as English, history, American civilization, philosophy or a social science. So that every student may have a curriculum designed to fit his individual needs, the offerings in the junior and senior year are largely elective. However, the choice of electives will depend upon the specific requirements of the theological school in which the student expects to matriculate.

CURRICULUM IN RELIGION AND RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

Any student desiring extensive study in Biblical history and literature, the historical development of Christianity, and Christian doctrine, may major in religion. A qualified student planning to enter the vocation of religious education should, besides majoring in religion, elect 18-21 semester hours in prescribed psychology, education, sociology, and church music courses. This program of study, completely within the liberal arts curriculum, is to qualify graduates for work as Educational Assistants, or after graduate study in a theological seminary, as Directors of Christian Education. Interested students, or prospective students, are invited to contact Dr. Ramsey of the Department of Religion for further information concerning the opportunities, responsibilities and requirements of these and other church vocations.

TEACHER EDUCATION

Lycoming College trains teachers for both elementary and secondary education. The program is clearly identified with the liberal arts nature of the College, and hence, no candidate for the profession of teaching is considered apart from the total liberal arts objective. Teacher education candidates meet all general course requirements of the College including a major in a subject matter field. Professional education requirements are stipulated as follows:

Secondary Education. Eighteen semester hours of professional education courses including Education 201, Introduction to Education; Psychology 309, Educational Psychology; Education 401 (six hours), Practice Teaching; and six additional hours in Education.

Elementary Education. Thirty-six semester hours of professional and approved liberal education courses including Education 201, Introduction to Education; Psychology 309, Educational Psychology; Education 334, Reading Methods; Education 344, Methods of Teaching in the Elementary School; and Education 400, Practice Teaching. Additional approved hours may be selected from among a minimum of four of the following courses or areas: (1) Art 141-142, Elementary Design; (2) Music 121-122, Music Theory; (3) Mathematics 207-208, Introduction to Modern Mathematics; (4) Biology 101-102, General Biology and/or Geology 101-102, General Geology; (5) History 107, Introduction to American History; Political Science 201, American Government; Economics 201-202, Principles of Economics; and Sociology 105, Introduction to Sociology; (6) English 201-202, English Literature; English 203-204, American Literature; (7) Economics 301,

Curricula 33

Economic Geography; and (8) Psychology 211-212, Patterns of Behavior.

Students may be considered for admission to the teacher education program under the following general terms:

- 1. Freshmen are not admissible to candidacy nor are they eligible for registration in courses offered by the Education Department.
- 2. Potential candidates must be approved by the Teacher Education Committee who will evaluate the candidates by personal interview and review of aptitude examinations and academic records.
- 3. Candidates must receive a satisfactory grade in Education 201, Introduction to Education. This course will normally be elected in the Junior Year.

Once admitted to candidacy, the following policies are in effect for students:

- 1. Attendance upon meetings of teacher education societies, clubs, or seminars is strongly recommended. These meetings are oriented toward the stimulation of professional attitudes.
- 2. Students will elect courses in academic and professional areas according to the demands of the major field.
- 3. Registration for Education 400 or 401, Practice Teaching, will be permitted only when a satisfactory cumulative grade-point average has been achieved in all courses.

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION CURRICULUM

Lycoming College offers course work in the area of general business particularly designed for training the prospective business executive. The modern American executive has a broad scope of intellectual interests outside his field of specialization. For this reason, the students enrolled in this curriculum will be required to take a wide range of courses in humanities, fine arts and the natural and social sciences. In addition to these courses specified under Degree Requirements above, the business student will be required to take Elementary Accounting, Statistics, Business Law, Principles of Economics, Money and Banking, and Corporate Finance. The remainder of the courses to be taken in the field of business will depend upon the major.

- a. Major in general business: Advanced courses in the field of business administration and/or economics totalling 24 semester hours, beyond the basic courses outlined above.
- b. Major in accounting: Intermediate Accounting and at least 18 additional hours in Accounting.

- c. Major in banking and finance: Intermediate Accounting and at least 18 additional hours in recommended business courses.
- d. Major in retail distribution: At least 24 semester hours in courses in retailing, marketing, and selling.
- e. Major in economics: Principles of Economics and 24 additional hours in economics.

MEDICAL TECHNOLOGY

This curriculum is organized around an academic background of basic science courses in addition to those liberal arts courses listed as requirements for the Bachelor of Arts degree. Twelve semester hours in biology are required as well as one semester of mathematics. In chemistry, General Chemistry and Quantitative Analysis are specified. Three years are spent in obtaining this academic background; the fourth year is spent in the medical laboratories of an approved hospital. The senior year will consist of an internship of a full calendar year at a hospital accredited in the Registry of Medical Technologists of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists. The College will give credit for the year when it is informed that the student has successfully passed the examinations given by the Registry of Medical Technologists of the American Society of Clinical Pathologists, and submits an official transcript of studies completed at the hospital.

EXPENSES AND FINANCIAL AID

Expenses

GENERAL EXPENSES

In considering the expenses of college, it is well to bear in mind that no student actually pays the full cost of his education. State colleges are enabled to keep the cost of tuition within reasonable limits by grants from the public treasury; independent colleges achieve this by voluntary contributions supplemented by income from their invested endowment funds. At Lycoming College, the tuition fee which each student pays represents only a portion of the total instruction cost. Tuition is kept at the lowest possible minimum consistent with adequate facilities and competent instruction.

Tuition at Lycoming is $450.00 per semester, plus certain fees which are listed on the following pages. The room expense for boarding students amounts to $200.00 per semester except for men living in the Fraternity Residence who are assessed an additional $25.00 Board is $225.00 per semester (the academic year comprises two semesters of approximately sixteen weeks each). If, for justifiable reason, it is impossible for a student to eat in the College Dining Hall, permission may be given the student to make other arrangements for meals. However, in the event such permission is granted, the room cost will be 50% higher than the above rates. If a student requests the use of a double room as a single room and the room is available, he will be charged 50% more than regular rates.

The tuition charged covers the regular or prescribed course of study which normally comprises four or five subjects (12-18 hours). If a student elects to carry additional courses a charge of $35.00 per credit hour is levied. Those students carrying fewer than 12 hours are also charged at the rate of $35.00 per credit hour. Additional detailed information will be furnished by the Treasurer's Office upon request.

APPLICATION FEE AND DEPOSIT

All students applying for admission are required to send an application fee of $10.00 with the application. This charge is to partially defray the costs of processing the application, maintaining academic records and is non-refundable.

After a student is notified that he has been accepted for admission by The College, he is required to make a deposit of $50.00. This deposit is evidence of the applicant's good intention to matriculate and is applicable to the general charges of the semester, and is not an extra fee. This deposit is not refundable.

Expenses 37

All returning students are required to pay a deposit of $50.00 on or before April 15, to reserve their place in the student body. This deposit is credited to the student's account, but is not refundable.

BOOKS AND SUPPLIES

A modern book and supply store is conveniently located in the Student Activities Building. Books and supplies are purchased by the individual student. The estimated cost is approximately $75.00 per year, but will vary somewhat in accordance with the course of study which the student is pursuing. The bookstore is open registration day and daily thereafter.

PAYMENT OF FEES

The basic fees for the semester are due and payable on or before registration day for that semester. Checks or money orders should be payable to Lycoming College. These basic fees are as follows:

Resident Students $925.00 Non-Resident Students $500.00

Charges for laboratory supplies and additional credit hours will be billed and payable immediately following each registration period.

PARTIAL PAYMENTS

For the convenience of those who find it impossible to follow the schedule of payments as listed, arrangements may be made with the College Treasurer, for the monthly payment of college fees. Additional information concerning partial payments may be obtained from the Treasurer, or Director of Admissions.

WITHDRAWALS AND REFUNDS

The date on which the Dean of the College approves the student's withdrawal sheet is considered the official date of withdrawal. In the case of minors, the approval of the parent or guardian is required before the withdrawal is approved and before any refund is made.

Room rentals have been fixed on a semester basis. Consequently, students leaving College prior to the ending of a semester will not be entitled to any refund of room rent. Board will be pro-rated by the week over the period of attendance.

Refund of tuition will be made to students who withdraw voluntarily from The College while in good standing and is fixed on the following basis: Students leaving during the first four-week period are charged 30%; during the second four weeks 60%; during the third four weeks, 90%; after twelve weeks, full charge.

Dropping a subject from the original schedule after the first week of either semester will not justify any claim for refund of tuition charges. Written permission to drop the subject must be obtained from the Dean's Office. No refund will be made to those students who are asked to withdraw from The College.

Other fees cannot be refunded for any reason whatever.

Expenses 39

PENALTY FOR NON-PAYMENT OF FEES

A student will not be registered for courses in a new semester if his account for previous attendance has not been settled.

No grades will be issued, no diploma, transcript of credits, or certification of withdrawal in good standing will be granted to any student until a satisfactory settlement of all obligations has been made.

DAMAGE CHARGES

Wherever possible, damage to dormitory property will be charged to the person or persons directly responsible. Damage and breakage occurring in a room will be the responsibility of students occupying the room.

Halls and bathroom damage will be the responsibility of all students of the section where damage occurs. Actual costs of repairs will be charged.

FINANCIAL AID

A generous program of financial aid for students is designed to recognize outstanding achievement and to supplement limited resources by providing assistance to students in their efforts to obtain a college education. This assistance may take any one, or any combination, of the following forms: (1) Scholarships, (2) Grants-in-aid, (3) Loans, (4) Workships.

With the exception of discounts, the establishment of need is the controlling factor in determining the amount of the grant or award. To this end, Lycoming uses the College Scholarship Service sponsored by the College Entrance Examination Board. Prescribed forms are furnished by the College upon request.

Scholarships are awarded to the beginning student on the basis of academic achievement as evidenced by the scores on the College Entrance Examination Board tests and a ranking in the first fifth of the high school class. To continue the receipt of the award during succeeding years, a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 plus must be maintained together with satisfactory campus citizenship.

Grants-In-Aid are awarded annually to students on the basis of a demonstrated need. The size of the grant is determined by need and by the promise of becoming beneficial members of The College family and of society.

Ministerial Grants-In-Aid: Financial assistance is available through grants from The Methodist Church to children of ministers and ministerial students. Consideration is also given to families with more than one student at The College.

Loans—Student loans are available from the following sources:

- 1. Title II of the National Defense Education Act of 1959 (Public Law 85-864).
- 2. Methodist Student Loans made available by The Methodist Church.
- 3. The Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Rich Loan and Prize Fund. The income from a capital fund of $10,000 is available for loan.
- 4. Donald Robert Ahn Memorial Fund in Music. The principal of the Memorial Fund is available for loans to worthy students who are majoring in music.
- 5. The Lambda Chi Alpha Loan Fund, created by the gift of $500 of Dean and Mrs. William S. Hoffman. The purpose of the fund is to grant loans in small amounts for emergencies where the student is able to show immediate need of financial assistance.

Detailed information concerning the above loans is available upon request.

Workships: Financial assistance is made available to a limited number of students annually in both The College and the city by means of gainful employment. Workships are generally not available for freshmen.

Endowment and Scholarships

ENDOWMENT

The Margaret A. Stevenson Powell gift to Endowment. $1,200, the gift of her children.

The Pearl C. Detwiler gift to Endowment. $500 bequeathed by her husband.

The Frank Wilson Klepser Memorial gift to Endowment. $5,000 given by his parents.

The Benjamin C. Bowman gift to Endowment. $5,000, the gift of Mr. and Mrs. J. Walton Bowman.

The Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Young gift to Endowment. $10,000.

The Miriam P. Welch gift to Endowment. $500.

The Wilson Hendrix Reiley Memorial gift to Endowment. $500.

The Mrs. Margaret J. Freeman gift to Endowment. $1,000.

The Agnes L. Hermance Art gift to Endowment. $2,000.

The Grace Stanley Dice Memorial gift to Endowment. $1,000, the gift of her husband, Willis C. Dice.

The Clarke Memorial Fund of about $100,000, provided by gift and bequest by the late Miss Martha B. Clarke, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, a former student, in the interest of the develoment program of Lycoming College. This was applied to the erection of the Clarke Building.

The Julia Trump Rich Memorial Fund, Endowment through annuity, of $25,000, the gift of Robert F. Rich, husband.

The M. B. Rich Chair of Religion. Endowment $50,000.

The Rich Family Endowment of $75,000. The income therefrom to be used for the upkeep of Rich Hall, Fine Arts Building and President's Residence.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Over two thousand dollars is awarded annually in scholarships and prizes. This not only encourages scholastic attainment, but also affords generous help to needy, worthy students. The list of scholarships and prizes follows:

THE DeWITT BODINE SCHOLARSHIP, founded by the late DeWitt Bodine, of Hughesville, Pa.

The entire expenses of board and tuition to that pupil of the graduating class of the Hughesville High School who shall excel in scholarship and character.

THE EDWARD J. GRAY SCHOLARSHIP, founded by the late Rev. Dr. Edward J. Gray, for thirty-one years the honored president of this institution.

The interest on $1,000 to be paid annually, in equal amounts, to the two applicants who attain a required rank highest in scholarship and deportment in the Senior Class.

THE ALEXANDER E. PATTON SCHOLARSHIP, founded by the late Hon. Alexander E. Patton, Curwensville, Pa.

The interest on $1,000 to be paid annually, in equal amounts, to the two applicants who attain a required rank highest in scholarship and deportment in the Junior Class.

THE GEORGE W. HUNTLEY, JR. SCHOLARSHIP, founded by the late George W. Huntley, Jr., Emporium, Pa.

The interest on $7,000 is available to help defray the tuition and expenses for the first year only of any graduate of Emporium High School who meets provisions as set forth in the trust agreement. The selection is made by the Superintendent of Schools, Cameron Co., Pa.

THE ELIZABETH S. JACKSON SCHOLARSHIP, founded by the late Mrs. Elizabeth S. Jackson of Berwick, Pa.

The interest on $500 to be paid annually to the applicant who attains a required rank highest in scholarship and deportment in the Sophomore Class.

THE DONALD C. WOLFE SCHOLARSHIP, founded by the late Mrs. Nora E. Wolfe, of Williamsport, Pa.

Religious Life

The opportunity to develop and practice the Christian philosophy of life is accomplished:

through the Director of Religious Activities, who is a member of the Faculty with teaching responsibilities. He is responsible for co-ordinating the religious activities of the College and provides counseling in the area of religion to students who request his assistance. He serves as Executive Secretary to the Religious Life Council.

through the Religious Life Council, the student organization responsible for co-ordinating religious groups on the campus. It is composed of respresentatives from all student religious organizations, the Student Government, Faculty, Administration, and the local clergy.

through religious organizations which include the Methodist Student Movement (meeting weekly at the College Church, Pine Street Methodist Church, located at the intersection of Pine Street and Edwin Street) and the John Wesley Club. Other denominational groups include the Canterbury Club (Episcopal), the Icthus Club (Presbyterian), the Lutheran Club, the Newman Club (Roman Catholic), and the Roger Williams Club (Baptist). Each of these meets regularly to provide members of its faith with the opportunity to participate in activities of common interest.

Campus Life

Lycoming College accepts the responsibility of making every situation in which learning occurs constructive and positive. The College believes that learning is a continuous process that takes place, not only in the classroom, but in every college activity.

The College assumes its responsibility in this area by directing the extra-curricular educational experiences of the students in such a way that these activities contribute to the achievement of the objectives of The College, by complementing the academic life of the campus.

The College considers one of its responsibilities to be the encouragement of as many different activities as are necessary to provide all students with the opportunity to participate constructively in this area of student life. Departmental clubs; athletics, both intercollegiate and intramural; varied interest groups such as denominational clubs, the choir, the band, etc.; social organizations; social activities; self-governing groups; and many informal associations are equally important in a well-integrated program of student activities.

Recognizing the need for skilled leadership in our world, it is the purpose of The College to utilize students in as many of the leadership positions as possible. In doing so, the students will be given the opportunity to accept greater responsibilities, and to learn as they participate.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Self-government by students in certain areas of campus life is an objective achieved through the Student Government Association of Lycoming College. The Student Council is the legislative body of the Association. The officers of the Student Government Association are elected from the entire student body. Members of Student Council are elected by classes and certain other organizations.

The Student Council has been delegated authority for certain areas of campus life. The establishment of parking regulations and their enforcement is the responsibility of Student Government. Students are employed by Student Council to serve as enforcement officers. All fines collected for violations are turned over to Student Council to pay for the costs of the registration of automobiles and the enforcement officers.

A Student Court has been established by Student Council to hear cases involving the violation of the parking regulations. This court is also empowered to consider cases referred to it by the Student Union Court or to hear cases on appeal of students from the Student Union Court.

The Student Court is composed of four students appointed by the President of the Student Council with the approval of the Council and the Dean of Students.

A number of standing committees of Student Council are concerned with specific areas of student life. The Social Calendar-Concessions Committee is responsible for approving the scheduling of all social activities by student organizations, and awards concessions to student groups for "fund raising" purposes upon request. The Dining Room Committee is responsible for the dress regulations in the Dining Room and advises the manager in menu planning and other areas of concern.

Homecoming, Winter Week-end and Spring Week-end are major social activities under the sponsorship of Student Council. Each of these week-ends features a major dance with a "name band," along with a full program of activities.

Other governing groups on the campus are the Inter-Fraternity Council, the Men's Dormitory Council, the Women's Dormitory Council, and Associated Women Students. Each operates under limited authority in situations related to its specific area.

SOCIAL AND CULTURAL INFLUENCES

Lycoming aims to give its students every possible opportunity to become familiar with the best social customs and usages. The development of poise and ease in handling oneself in social situations is a major objective in the program of The College. These experiences are provided through the dining room, coffees and receptions, and other social functions.

The Artist and Lecture Series presents several performances of the best obtainable talent in music, drama, the dance, and lecture. The Series is presented to provide wider cultural experiences than might normally be available to the student. Although the Series is entertaining, its prime objective is to acquaint the student with the arts and the humanities as they are performed on a professional level.

COLLEGE PUBLICATIONS AND COMMUNICATIONS

There are several official college publications. Each is devoted to a specific area of college life, and is designed to communicate to selected groups of the college constituency.

The Bell, official student newspaper, is published weekly, and is devoted to interests of the student body, reporting current campus events.

The Arrow, college yearbook, is published in May and presents a record of student life during the current academic year.

The Guidepost, published annually by Student Government, is a student handbook of regulations and miscellaneous information. It is designed primarily for new students and is distributed to them prior to their arrival on the campus.

The Alumni Office publishes The Alumni Bulletin three times yearly. It is designed to keep the alumni informed of current happenings at the college and on alumni activities. The Newsletter is published periodically, between issues of the Bulletin.

The Student Bulletin and The Faculty Bulletin are published weekly by the office of the Dean of the College. The Lycoming Library Student Handbook is published by the Library every September.

The Campus Radio Station broadcasts nightly from 7:00 p. m. until midnight on a wired circuit to Wesley Hall, Rich Hall and Old Main. The station broadcasts study music, news commentary, sports results, and special programs of interest to the student body.

CAMPUS CLUBS AND ORGANIZATIONS

A variety of organizations on the campus provides opportunities for social and intellectual growth. These groups are organized and conducted by students in cooperation with faculty sponsors or advisers.

Some of the groups are: The International Relations Club, which is the campus focus for study and discussion of world affairs; the Student Education Association of Pennsylvania, which gives prospective teachers current information on the teaching field and an insight into the problems of education; the Drama Club, which stages a variety of dramatic productions including their own original work; The Varsity Club, composed of lettermen, promotes college spirit in sports; the Pre-Medical Society for pre-professional students in the sciences; the Business Club for students majoring in business administration. The Philosophy Society provides an outlet for all students interested in the informal discussion of philosophic concepts; the French, German, Russian and Spanish Clubs study the language and the life and culture of the countries; and the Associated Women Students sponsor parties and teas for students, faculty and parents.

FRATERNITIES

Five Greek letter groups on the campus provide a means of bringing to men students the advantages of national fraternal organization as well as group housing. They include the Psi Chapter of Kappa Delta Rho, Beta Lambda Chapter of Sigma Pi, Iota Beta Zeta Chapter of Lambda Chi Alpha, Epsilon Beta Chapter of Theta Chi, and the Nu Chapter of Alpha Gamma Upsilon.

The Inter-Fraternity Council coordinates the activities of the fraternities.

College Honors

THE CHIEFTAIN AWARD

The Chieftain Award is given to that senior who, in the opinion of the students and faculty, has contributed the most to Lycoming College through support of school activities; who has a pleasing personality and the ability to get along with his co-workers, both students and faculty; who has evidenced a good moral code; and whose academic rank is in the upper half of his class.

SACHEM HONOR SOCIETY

Any graduating student who has attended Lycoming College for at least three years and has attained a grade-point average of 3.50 or above, or any junior student who has attended Lycoming College for three years and has attained a grade-point average of 3.70 or above is eligible for membership.

ALPHA PSI OMEGA

This national honorary society is for dramatic students. Worthy students are elected to the fraternity as a reward for their efforts in participating in the plays staged by the Lycoming College Players.

PHI ALPHA THETA

This national honorary society is for those students interested in history. To be eligible, students must have completed, with a grade-point average of at least 3.1, a minimum of 15 semester hours in history. For two-thirds of the remainder of the work there must be a grade-point average of at least 3.0. The local chapter is Zeta Zeta.

Students interested in history who do not meet these standards are eligible for associate membership.

TAU BETA SIGMA

This national honorary sorority for college bandswomen elects to membership each year those women who have shown outstanding performance with the college band. Lycoming's chapter is Beta Epsilon.

KAPPA KAPPA PSI

Each year men students demonstrating outstanding band musicianship are elected to membership in the Gamma Tau chapter of this national honorary fraternity for college bandsmen.

IRUSKA HONOR SOCIETY

No more than seven juniors are selected annually for membership in Iruska, which honors juniors active in extra-curricular activities, who best represent the spirit of campus leadership at Lycoming College, and whose academic rank is in the upper half of their class.

WHO'S WHO IN AMERICAN COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

The Senior class elects members to Who's Who. The Senior members are honored by having their names appear in the annual issue of the national publication, Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities. Election is on the basis of academic rank in the upper half of the class, personal character, service to The College, and outstanding leadership in extra-curricular activities.

College Facilities

The facilities at Lycoming College are excellent. It has its "Old Main" which dates back to pre-Civil War days. However, the majority of the buildings and all the dormitories have been erected since World War II. The College has followed a Georgian Colonial style of architecture in its post-war development.

ACADEMIC

THE JOHN W. LONG LIBRARY: Named in honor of the late Rev. John W. Long, President of the Institution from 1921 to 1955. It was officially opened in October, 1951. The Library contains approximately 51,000 volumes, along with special collections, audiovisual rooms and a small chapel.

THE FINE ARTS BUILDING: Converted from a residential home, this building contains the studios and individual practice rooms for the students enrolled in art and music curricula.

MEMORIAL HALL: Erected in 1947, Memorial Hall was purchased from the U. S. Government. It is used for classrooms and faculty offices.

BRADLEY HALL: Completed in 1895 and named in honor of the Hon. Thomas Bradley of Philadelphia, it housed the library of The College for many years. Bradley Hall is now used for classrooms and faculty offices.

THE SCIENCE BUILDING: Completed in 1956, it is exclusively devoted to scientific studies in the fields of chemistry, physics, biology and geology. Lecture rooms, laboratories, along with appropriate faculty offices are located in the Science Building. In addition, a radio-active isotope laboratory, used for instruction in nuclear technology as related to the natural sciences, is found here.

ADMINISTRATIVE

OLD MAIN: Completed by various stages from 1839 to 1869, this is the original building of The College. As the administrative center it contains the offices of the President, the Dean of the College, the Registrar, the Treasurer, the Director of Admissions and others.

EVELAND HALL: Completed in 1912 and at one time the preministerial dormitory, it was named in honor of Bishop W. P. Eveland, President of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary from 1905 to 1912. No longer used for residential purposes, Eveland Hall now contains faculty offices and the Civil War Museum.

RECREATIONAL

THE STUDENT ACTIVITIES BUILDING: The student center, completed in 1959, contains dining facilities for 800, Burchfield Lounge, a recreation area, game room, music room, book store and post office. The Board Room, offices of the Dean of Students and Dean of Women, and offices of various student organizations are on the second floor.

GYMNASIUM: This is the athletic center of The College, housing basketball and other courts, swimming pool, bowling alleys, and the administrative offices of the Physical Education Department. Begun in 1923, the present plant will soon be supplemented by new facilities off campus.

RESIDENTIAL

PRESIDENT'S RESIDENCE: Located on the northwest corner of the campus, this house became the President's home in 1940.

RICH HALL: Named in honor of the Rich family of Woolrich, Pennsylvania, this residence currently accommodates 128 women. The College infirmary and the Sara J. Walter lounge for non-resident women are located on the ground floor. Completed in 1948, it marked the first step in the post-war expansion of the College.

WOMEN'S DORMITORY: Completed in 1962, this residence accommodates 126 women.

WESLEY HALL: The oldest men's residence currently in use was completed in 1956. It accommodates 144 students and includes lounges and a recreation area. This building was named in honor of the founder of Methodism.

FRATERNITY RESIDENCE: Completed in 1962, the five chapters of the national fraternities are located in this building. The fraternity units are distinct and self-contained and provide, in addition to dormitory facilities for the brothers, lounges and chapter rooms for each group. The fraternities share with the campus a large social area on the ground floor.

MEN'S DORMITORY: Also completed in 1962, this residence accommodates 154 students.

Programs and Rules

ORIENTATION

A period preceding the opening of the Fall Term is set aside to provide freshmen and transfer students with assistance in making the adjustment to Lycoming College. A special program consisting of placement testing, interviews with faculty counselors, general orientation meetings, formal convocation, registration, and social and recreational activity is prepared. Faculty and selected upperclassmen are present to assist the new student during this period. All new students are required to participate in this program. The schedule is mailed to each freshman and transfer student during the summer.

During the first Fall Semester a new student is on campus, he must complete a course in Orientation, which is required for graduation. This course, meeting weekly, carries one hour of credit (not applicable toward the degree) and covers the various aspects of adjustment to college, the use of the library, study skills, attitudes, and motivation.

FRESHMAN CUSTOMS

Certain traditions and customs have been established for freshmen. They are designed to help the freshmen become acquainted with the history and customs of Lycoming College. Each regulation has a purpose in the development of the individual into a class group which is a part of the total College community. The customs freshmen will be expected to observe are printed in the Guidepost.

INTERCOLLEGIATE SPORTS

The College offers an attractive program of intercollegiate athletics and encourages wide participation by its students. It is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association, the National Athletic Intercollegiate Association, and the Northern Division of the Middle Atlantic Conference. Lycoming annually meets some of the top-ranking, small college teams in the East in athletic competition. Contests are scheduled with other colleges in football, soccer, basketball, wrestling, swimming, baseball, tennis, golf, and track.

INTRAMAURAL ATHLETICS

An extensive and diversified program of intramural athletic competition affords opportunity for every student to participate in one or more sports of his own choosing.

Sports for men include touch football, basketball, volleyball, bowling, badminton, table tennis, tennis, softball, golf, wrestling, swimming, horseshoes, track and field.

Sports for women include competition in basketball, volleyball, bowling, badminton, table tennis, tennis, softball, swimming, field hockey, archery, and rhythmical activities. Field days are arranged with WAA groups of other colleges and universities during the school year.

COUNSELING PROGRAM

An advantage of a small college is the rich experience gained by the close association of students and faculty. In addition to this valuable personal relationship, which affords students the opportunity to discuss various problems with their instructors, Lycoming has a wellrounded counseling program for its students. Under the direction of the Dean of the College, this program includes areas as represented by the Dean of Students, the Dean of Women, and Faculty Advisers.

The program begins with a personal interview between the Director of Admissions and the candidate for admission. These interviews are sufficient in length to obtain a picture of the student, his background, and his plans for the future. When the student enters the College as a Freshman, he is assigned to a faculty adviser. The new student will meet with this adviser regularly during the year. The Freshman will find his adviser eager to guide and assist in the many problems that confront the new college student. Certain tests will be made available to the students for diagnostic purposes and to assist in advisement. These tests will be offered on a referral basis to those students for whom the need is obvious. Additional counseling is available to the student in the area of academic, personal and emotional adjustment.

PLACEMENT SERVICE

The Placement Bureau maintains a register listing the abilities and major interests of students and recent alumni. Literature from businesses and industrial associations is kept available. Consultations with the Placement Director assist students toward wise selection of a profession. Interviews are then scheduled at which students meet and confer with representatives from companies in which they are interested. Lycoming graduates are usually placed before commencement.

There are many diversified businesses in Williamsport. These firms give students at Lycoming splendid opportunities for visits, tours, and conferences. They also afford the student body a variety of part-time jobs during each college session. The Placement Bureau serves as a clearinghouse for part-time employment and can usually find work for every student needing it.

PROVISIONS FOR VETERANS

Lycoming is fully approved for the educational program for Veterans under Federal Public Laws 550, 634, and 894.

RESIDENCE

All single students who do not reside at home are required to live in The College residence halls and eat their meals in The College dining room. Special diets cannot be provided. Some male students may be assigned to private homes because of a shortage of space in the residence halls. Exceptions to these regulations can be approved only for the purpose of working for room and/or board or to live with relatives. Requests for exceptions must be submitted in writing to the Dean of Students or the Dean of Women. The petition must include the name of the householder and the address where the student wishes to live.

Members and pledges of social fraternities are required to live in the Fraternity Residence when space in available. All fraternity members eat their meals in The College dining room.

Residents furnish their own linens, towels, blankets, bedspreads, and wastebaskets. Drapes are provided in all women's residences.

Linens, towels and blankets may be rented from the Merit Laundry & Dry Cleaning Co. Information is sent to all resident students concerning this service following their assignment to a room.

WOMEN'S RESIDENCE

Resident women students live either in Rich Hall, Rich House, or the new dormitory for women. Rich House is the honor house for upperclass women. Rich Hall, which was built in 1948, will accommodate 128 women, while the new dormitory will accommodate 126 upperclass women students. Rooms are arranged in suites of two rooms with two students living in each room. Each four students have private bath facilities.

Also located in Rich Hall are the Infirmary, recreation room, television room, and laundry facilities. Lounges, telephone switchboard, and the office for the Head Resident are all located on the first floor.

All resident women students are members of the Resident Women's Association of Lycoming College. They establish standards and regulations for community living and endeavor to assist each new student in her adjustment to living in a college dormitory. All dormitory activities are under the supervision of the Dean of Women.

MEN'S RESIDENCE

All resident men live in Wesley Hall, the Fraternity Residence, and the new dormitory for men. Upperclassmen have priority in assignment of all rooms, except for 52 places reserved for freshmen on the third floor of Wesley Hall. Rooms for freshmen are assigned according to the date the room reservation fee of $50.00 is paid following notification of admission.

All rooms are for double occupancy. Rooms are furnished with a single bed, pillow, a desk, desk chair, and a dresser for each occupant. In Wesley Hall and the new dormitory the furniture is built into the room, except for the bed, and a light is provided over the desk. Window shades are provided in all rooms. It is advisable to wait until after arriving on the campus to purchase drapes and bed-spreads, if desired.

DISCIPLINE

The College expects all of its students to accept the responsibility required of citizens in a free democratic society. The rules and regulations of The College are designed to protect the rights of every member of the community against encroachment by individuals. The limitations which are imposed upon the activities of individuals are established for the common good of the entire college community.

Students who are unable to demonstrate that they can accept this responsibility or who are antagonistic to the spirit and general purpose of The College, or who fail to abide by the regulations established by The College may be dismissed or requested to leave The College at any time during the academic year.

REGULATIONS

Certain regulations have been established by The College. In addition to those published here, specific rules are furnished each student upon matriculation, or are published in the Guidepost.

Announcements during the academic year may amend or supplement the catalogue regulations.

ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGES

The position of Lycoming College regarding the use of alcoholic beverages by its campus constituency is based upon the official position of The Methodist Church, which is stated in Paragraph 2022 of the Discipline of The Methodist Church, 1960 edition, and upon the premise that any activity not contributing constructively to the development of a mature citizen in the college community is inconsistent with the aims and ideals of The College.

Specific rules and regulations regarding the use of alcoholic beverages are based on the above statement and are consistent with the statutes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in regard to the purchase and use of alcoholic beverages by persons under 21 years of age.

The following situations may result in dismissal from The College or other disciplinary action:

- 1. The possession and/or use of alcoholic beverages inside any College building, or on College property, including the storage of such beverages in automobiles on the campus.
- 2. The use of alcoholic beverages by women, regardless of age, while they are resident students of The College and are not under the chaperonage of their parents.
- 3. Returning to the campus in an intoxicated condition resulting in an inability to control behavior so that it is acceptable at all times.
- 4. The illegal purchase or consumption of alcoholic beverages by male students of the college under 21 years of age.
- 5. The provision of alcoholic beverages by legally qualified male student purchasers to students under 21 years of age.
- 6. The possession and/or use of alcoholic beverages at any social function sponsored by The College or any organization of students, regardless of location.
- 7. The rental and/or use of non-college facilities where alcoholic beverages are present and/or are consumed by the students present. This includes party rooms, cabin parties, picnics, etc.
- 8. Any situation resulting in behavior reflecting discredit upon The College which has resulted from the consumption of alcoholic beverages. This includes public intoxication, situations where police are involved, or where public notice is attracted and reported to College officials.

- 9. Any situation not covered specifically under the above regulations which indicates that the students are deliberately seeking to avoid the responsibility for the violation of regulations by individuals or groups.
- 10. Any violation of the Liquor Control Act, as amended, of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

These rules and regulations have been formulated for the protection of the reputation and the well-being of The College community. Their observance is expected of every student of Lycoming College. It is assumed that a willingness to observe these regulations is implicit in the acceptance of membership in the Lycoming College community.

AUTOMOBILES

All resident male students classified as freshmen or sophomores by the Registrar's office, and all those resident male students on academic probation may not operate or have in their possession in Williamsport, or the surrounding area, motor vehicles of any nature. No resident women students will be permitted to operate or have in their possession in Williamsport or the surrounding area, a motor vehicle of any nature. Exceptions for students needing automobiles for employment purposes may be granted only upon written petition to the Dean of Students.

Parking privileges on the campus are reserved for students, faculty, and staff members who have registered their automobiles and have been issued parking stickers for their cars.

FIREARMS

No resident student may keep firearms or ammunition in the place of his residence or stored in an automobile on the campus. Facilities for storing firearms for hunting purposes are available in the Dean of Students' Office.

GAMBLING

The use of money or stakes representing money in card games or other games is prohibited while a student is enrolled at The College.

DORMITORIES

Dormitory students are responsible for the furnishings and the condition of their rooms. Inspections of rooms and their contents are made periodically. Charges will be assessed for damages to rooms and furniture.

Dormitory students are expected to vacate their rooms during the vacation periods when the dormitories are closed and no later than 24 hours following their last examinations except for graduating seniors.

Regulations regarding quiet hours for study are established by the appropriate Dorm Councils and are published in the Guidepost and on the dormitory bulletin boards.

MONEY AND VALUABLES

The College accepts no responsibility for loss of valuables due to theft, fire, or other causes. Students may deposit money in the Treasurer's Office. Withdrawals are permitted on Friday afternoons, only.

MARRIAGE

Students who change their marital status are requested to notify the Dean of Men or the Dean of Women prior to their marriage.

Married students may not live in The College dormitories. If a woman student marries while a resident student, she must vacate her room in the residence hall immediately.

Health Services

MEDICAL HISTORY AND PHYSICAL EXAMINATION

Each student entering The College is required to submit a medical history record and a physical examination form prior to arriving on the campus. The parent or guardian of each student under 21 years of age must sign the health record which authorizes the College health authorities to give emergency medical treatment according to good medical practice. In the event an operation or other treatment is required for a serious accident or illness, the College Physician will always secure prior parental consent if the circumstances permit.

Exemption from participation in physical activity associated with Physical Education may be granted only by the College Physician. This exemption is based upon the medical history, report of the student's physician, and a physical examination by the College Physician.

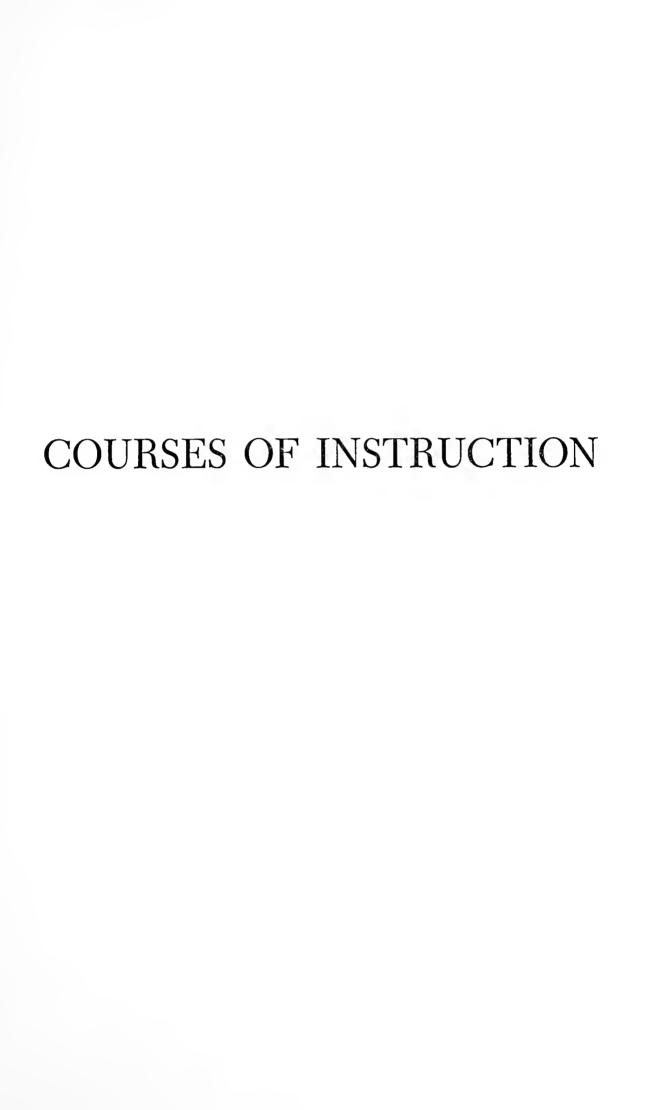

INFIRMARY SERVICE

The College maintains an Infirmary which is staffed on a seven-day week, twenty-four-hour day basis with Registered Nurses. The College Physician is on call when needed. Normal medical treatment by the Health Service Staff at the College Infirmary is free of charge. However, overnight bed care, special medications, x-rays, surgery, care of major accidents, immunizations, examinations for glasses, Physician's calls other than in the Infirmary, and special nursing service, etc., are not included in the Infirmary service which is provided free. A daily room charge for Infirmary bed care of $8.00 is made. This charge is covered under the Accident and Sickness Insurance Program of The College.

ACCIDENT AND SICKNESS INSURANCE

All resident students are required to purchase the Accident and Sickness Group Insurance plan of The College for the academic year, unless they can present evidence that they are covered under some other health insurance program. Non-resident students may participate in the College Group Insurance Plan on a voluntary basis. If a student becomes ineligible under another plan because of age, he must enter the College Program in the semester in which he loses his other coverage. The Insurance Plan will also be available for a twelve-months' coverage on a voluntary basis for all students. Information concerning the Plan and its benefits will be sent to all students during the summer.

111-112. ELEMENTARY. Introduction into basic conversational patterns and syntactical foundations of the language. Intensive laboratory drills in the active use of colloquial French. Reading of graded texts.

Four hours credit each semester.

211-212. INTERMEDIATE. Continuation and extension of Elementary French. Reading of contemporary material.

Prerequisite, French 111-112 or equivalent.

GERMAN 81

303-304. ADVANCED. Designed to develop a high degree of aural comprehension and conversational fluency. One third of the time devoted to composition.

Prerequisite, French 211-212 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

311-312. FRENCH DRAMA. Lectures, discussions and reports on outside reading.

Prerequisite, French 211-212 or consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

321-322. FRENCH NOVEL. Novelists of the 19th and 20th centuries. (Alternate years.)

Prerequisite, French 211-212 or consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

401-402. SURVEY. A review of representative works, including poetry, from the Renaissance to modern times. Analysis of the texts and their relations to other literatures. Recommended for French majors.

Prerequisite, French 303-304 and consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

403-404. INTRODUCTION TO APPLIED LINGUISTICS. Primarily for those who intend to teach French.

Prerequisite, French 303-304 or equivalent, and consent of the instructor. Three hours credit each semester.

415-416. STUDIES IN FRENCH LITERATURE. Introduction to graduate methods of research. Conference hours and reports to be arranged.

Prerequisite, consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

GERMAN

The major in German consists of twenty-four semester hours above 100 level courses, including German 411-412.

111-112. ELEMENTARY. Introduction into patterns and grammatical and syntactical foundations of the German language. Intensive laboratory drills in the active use of simple language. Reading of graded texts.

Four hours credit each semester.

211-212. INTERMEDIATE. A continuation and extension of Elementary German. Reading of contemporary material.

Prerequisite, German 111-112 or equivalent.

217-218. READING. An alternative terminal course to German 211-212, offered to students who primarily desire an ability to read and translate expository prose, especially of a scholarly nature. Not part of a major sequence.

Prerequisite, German 111-112 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

303-304. ADVANCED. Designed to develop a high degree of aural comprehension and conversational fluency. Conversation and composition.

Prerequisite, German 211-212 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

311-312. GERMAN LITERARY MASTERPIECES. Lectures, discussions and reports on outside reading.

Prerequisite, German 211-212 or consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

403-404. THE AGE OF GOETHE. Readings and discussions of representative works on the German classical period.

Prerequisite, consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

405-406. THE 19TH AND 20TH CENTURIES. Readings and discussions of representative works of the major literary movements of the period.

Prerequisite, consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

411-412. SURVEY OF GERMAN CIVILIZATION. A study of the major developments in German thought and culture, demonstrated on selected texts from all major periods of German literary history. Offered on demand, recommended for German majors, and majors in other fields in the humanities.

Prerequisite, consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

415-416. STUDIES IN GERMAN. Special studies for majors. Conferences and reports to be arranged.

Prerequisite, consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

GREEK

205-206. NEW TESTAMENT GREEK GRAMMAR. Fundamentals of New Testament Greek grammar.

Three hours credit each semester.

317. SELECTED READINGS FROM THE NEW TESTAMENT. The reading of passages chosen from the Greek Testament for their literary merit and significance for the Christian faith.

Prerequisite, Greek 206.

Russian 83

318. THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK. A critical reading of the Greek text with reference to the problems of higher and lower Biblical criticism.

Prerequisite, Greek 206.

Three hours credit.

418. THE EPISTLE TO THE ROMANS. A critical study of the Greek text with special attention being given to the theology of St. Paul.

Prerequisite, Greek 206.

Three hours credit.

RUSSIAN

The major in Russian consists of twenty-four semester hours, above the 100 level courses.

111-112. ELEMENTARY. Introduction into basic conversational patterns and syntactical foundations of the language. Intensive laboratory drills in the active use of everyday Russian. Cyrillic alphabet. Reading of graded texts.

Four hours credit each semester.

211-212. INTERMEDIATE. Continuation and extension of Elementary Russian. Reading of contemporary material.

Prerequisite, Russian 111-112 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

217-218. READING. An alternative terminal course to Russian 211-212, offered to students who primarily desire an ability to read and translate expository prose, especially of a scholarly nature.

Prerequisite, Russian 111-112 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

303-304. ADVANCED. Designed to develop a high degree of aural comprehension and conversational fluency. One third of the time devoted to composition.

Prerequisite, Russian 211-212 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

311-312. RUSSIAN LITERARY MASTERPIECES. Lectures, discussions and reports on outside reading. Special emphasis upon 19th century writers.

Prerequisite, Russian 211-212 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

401-402. SURVEY. A review of all representative works, including Soviet literature. Analysis of the texts and their relations to other literature.

Prerequisite, consent of the instructor.

SPANISH

The major in Spanish consists of twenty-four semester hours, above the 100 level courses.

111-112. ELEMENTARY. Fundamentals of pronunciation and grammar; practice in conversation, reading and composition. Laboratory drills.

Four hours credit each semester.

211-212. INTERMEDIATE. Continuation and extension of Elementary Spanish. Reading of contemporary material.

Prerequisite, Spanish 111-112 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

301-302. INTRODUCTION TO APPLIED LINGUISTICS. Primarily for those who intend to teach Spanish.

Prerequisite, Spanish 211-212 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

303-304. ADVANCED. Designed to develop a high degree of aural comprehension and conversational fluency. One third of the time devoted to composition.

Prerequisite, Spanish 211-212 or equivalent.

Three hours credit each semester.

311-312. SPANISH LITERATURE OF THE GOLDEN AGE. A study of representative works and principal literary figures.

Prerequisite, Spanish 303-304 or consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

321-322. SPANISH AMERICAN LITERATURE. A study of representative works.

Prerequisite, Spanish 303-304 or equivalent and consent of the instructor. Three hours credit each semester.

401-402. SURVEY. A study of representative works from the earliest monuments to modern times. Analysis of the texts and their relation to other literatures. Required of all majors.

Prerequisite, Spanish 303-304 or equivalent and consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

415-416. STUDIES IN SPANISH. Special studies for majors. Conference hours and reports to be arranged.

Prerequisite, consent of the instructor.

Three hours credit each semester.

GEOLOGY

Professor Howe

101. GEOLOGY. An introduction to earth science with particular regard for the origin of the earth, its physical structure and the forces which account for its present surface features. Three lectures and one two-hour laboratory period a week.

Four hours credit.

History 85

102. GEOLOGY. Geological history and principles are stressed. Emphasis is placed on the geology of the United States generally, and that of Pennsylvania in particular. Three lectures and one two-hour laboratory period a week.

Prerequisite, Geology 101.

Four hours credit.

HISTORY

Professor Priest
Associate Professor Ewing
Assistant Professors Gompf and Wargo
Instructor Stites
Part-time Instructor Weller

The major in history consists of thirty semester hours.

105-106. MODERN EUROPE. An examination of the political, social, cultural and intellectual experience of the peoples of Europe from the era of the high Renaissance and the Reformation to the conclusion of World War I.

Three hours credit each semester.

107. UNITED STATES HISTORY. An initial examination of the significant men, measures and movements important to comprehending the course of United States history.

Three hours credit.

205-206. FOUNDATIONS OF THE UNITED STATES (1492-1837). The colonial and early national backgrounds of factors important in the growth of the United States.

Three hours credit each semester.

302. AMERICAN FOREIGN RELATIONS. A study of the most significant diplomatic problems arising out of wars, westward expansion, and colonial possession, with special attention to the evolution of the United States as a world power.

Three hours credit.

320. PENNSYLVANIA HISTORY. A history of Pennsylvania from its founding to the present day. All phases of life in the colony and commonwealth are treated.

Three hours credit.

341-342. THE ANCIENT WORLD. A brief account of the origins of civilization in the ancient Near East followed by a more intensive study of the political, social and cultural history of ancient Greece. The second semester is concerned with the Roman Republic and Empire.

Three hours credit each semester.

343-344. MEDIEVAL EUROPE. The disintegration of ancient civilization and susequent developments during the early middle ages. The second semester traces the formation of a new civilization in the later middle ages and examines the course of the Renaissance and of the Reformation.

Three hours credit each semester.

345-346. RECENT AND CONTEMPORARY EUROPE. The political, diplomatic, and imperial history of Europe from 1914 to the present. The first semester takes the account to the beginning of World War II, the second semester from that point to the present.

Prerequisite, History 105-106.

Three hours credit each semester.

347-348. HISTORY OF ENGLAND. The political, constitutional, social and cultural history of England through medieval and modern times. The first semester takes the account to 1660, the second semester, to the present.

Prerequisite, History 105-106.

Three hours credit each semester.

349-350. HISTORY OF RUSSIA. The first semester will cover the stream of Russian history from its origins down to the eve of the Russian Revolution of 1917, with special emphasis on the revolutionary-intellectual tradition and the growth of Marxism. The second semester will deal with the Revolution and the ensuing Soviet period down to the present.

Prerequisite, History 105-106.

Three hours credit each semester.

351-352. HISTORY OF THE FAR EAST. The great oriental civilizations of China, Japan and Southeast Asia will be investigated in historical context during the first semester, ending with the impact of the West in the nineteenth century. The second semester will deal chiefly with twentieth century developments, with special emphasis on the growth of communism in East Asia.

Prerequisite, History 105-106.

Three hours credit each semester.

353-354. HISTORY OF THE NEAR EAST. First semester: the birth of civilizations and the course of political, cultural and religious currents in the ancient Near East; the impact of the rise and spread of Islam. Second semester: the rise and decline of the Ottoman Empire and its relations with the fringe areas of the Near East, including the Balkans, Iran, and North Africa.

Prerequisite, History 105-106.

Three hours credit each semester.

355-356. THE CIVIL WAR AND THE RISE OF MODERN AMERICA. Causes, courses, and aftermath of the Civil War followed in the second semester by study of forces creating present day America.

Three hours credit each semester.

357-358. RECENT AND CONTEMPORARY UNITED STATES. World War I and its effect upon the United States followed by World War II and subsequent American history.

Prerequisite, six hours of history.

359-360. AMERICAN SOCIAL AND INTELLECTUAL HISTORY. The rise and development of all phases of American social and intellectual experiences from colonial settlement to the present.

Three hours credit each semester.

The following studies courses are open only to students of junior or senior standing, with consent of instructor.

- 415-416. a. STUDIES IN THE PHILOSOPHY OF HISTORY.
 - b. STUDIES IN THE ERA OF THE RENAISSANCE AND REFORMATION.
 - c. STUDIES IN BRITISH CONSTITUTIONAL AND LEGAL HISTORY.
 - d. STUDIES IN THE FRENCH REVOLUTION AND NAPOLEONIC ERA.
 - e. STUDIES IN RUSSIAN INTELLECTUAL HISTORY.
 - f. STUDIES IN COLONIAL AMERICA.
 - g. STUDIES IN AMERICAN INTELLECTUAL HISTORY.
 - h. STUDIES IN PENNSYLVANIA HISTORY.

MATHEMATICS

Associate Professors Knights and VanBaelen
Assistant Professors Frutiger, Harer and Remley

The major in mathematics consists of twenty-four semester hours beyond the 100 level courses.

101. COLLEGE ALGEBRA. After a rapid review of quadratic equations, this course deals with the binomial theorem, permutations, and combinations, probability, series, determinants, and theory of equations.

Three hours credit.

102. TRIGONOMETRY. An introductory course in plane trigonometry dealing with the use of logarithms in the solution of plane triangles, together with the trigonometric functions of an angle and the fundamental identities connecting its functions.

Three hours credit.

151. ENGINEERING DRAWING. The principles of orthographic projection, axiometric drawing, and perspective through instrumental and free hand exercises. Vertical lettering, free hand sketches, uses of drawing instruments, drafting room practice in conventional representations, practice in pencil and ink tracing, sections, theory of dimensioning, detail and assembly drawings and the reading of working drawings. Class meets two two-hour laboratory periods each week.

Two hours credit.

152. DESCRIPTIVE GEOMETRY. Graphical solution of the more advanced space problems, both theoretical and practical and those encountered in engineering practice; practice in inclined free hand lettering. Problems involve the measurement of angles and distances and the generation of various surfaces, together with their sections, developments and intersections. In each project, visualization and analysis lead to a logical and efficient solution. Class meets two two-hour laboratory periods each week.

Two hours credit.

201. ANALYTIC GEOMETRY. A study of the graphs of various equations; curves resulting from simple locus conditions with stress on the loci of the second degree; polar co-ordinates, and co-ordinates of space.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 102.

Four hours credit.

205. DIFFERENTIAL CALCULUS. Functions, limits, slope, derivatives of algebraic and transcendental functions and their applications to maxima and minima, rates, curvature.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 201.

Three hours credit.

207-208. INTRODUCTION TO MODERN MATHEMATICS. Introduces student to such topics in modern mathematics as symbolic logic, sets and sub-sets, probability theory, vectors and matrices, linear programming and theory of games. Applications from the field of the natural sciences, social sciences, and education.

Three hours credit each semester.

303. HISTORY OF MATHEMATICS. A survey of the historical development of arithmetic, algebra, trigonometry, and the beginnings of analytic geometry and calculus.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 305.

Three hours credit.

305. INTEGRAL CALCULUS I. Indefinite and definite integration, improper integrals. Applications: areas, volumes, length of curves, surfaces of revolution, moments, pressure and work.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 205.

Three hours credit.

306. INTEGRAL CALCULUS II. Review of solid analytic geometry, partial differentiation and applications, multiple integral and applications, infinite series, expansions, MacLaurin's and Taylor's Theorem with and without remainder, and an introduction to differential equations.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 305.

Three hours credit.

307. HIGHER ALGEBRA. Includes the study of the binomial theorem for any index, the summation of series, mathematical induction, elements of the theory of numbers, indeterminate equations, and probability.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 101.

Three hours credit.

309. ELEMENTARY THEORY OF EQUATIONS. Complex number, binomial equations, polynomials and solution of polynomial equations. Determinants and introduction to matrices. Linear equations. Elimination.

Music 89

404. DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS. A first course in ordinary differential equations. Includes differential equations of first order with applications to physics, mechanics, and chemistry; linear equations with constant coefficients, simultaneous equations, and some special higher order equations.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 306.

Three hours credit.

407. CALCULUS OF FINITE DIFFERENCES. The study of finite differences with applications to interpolation, summation of series, integration, and solution to difference equations.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 306.

Three hours credit.

409. INTRODUCTION TO NUMERICAL ANALYSIS. An introduction to the methods for obtaining numerical answers to mathematical problems. Includes the study and analysis of tabulated data leading to interpolation formulas of Newton, Bessel, and Stirling, and to trigonometric interpolation; numerical solution of equations and systems of equations; and numerical integration.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 407.

Three hours credit.

411. MODERN ALGEBRA. An introduction to the axiomatic treatment of algebra. Topics covered include the development of the number systems and the abstract concepts of group, integral domain, and field.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 306.

Three hours credit.

415-416. STUDIES IN MATHEMATICS. Conferences, oral and written reports on selected topics designed to round out a student's knowledge of mathematics. Limited to qualified majors.

Three hours credit each semester.

MUSIC

Associate Professor McIver
Assistant Professors Morgan, Russell and Sheaffer
Instructor Landon

A major in music consists of thirty semester hours adequately distributed in Principles, History and Literature, and Applied Music. A minimum of fifteen semester hours in Principles, History and Literature is required.

A. PRINCIPLES

121-122. THEORY. An integrated course in the fundamentals of music and musicianship including written harmony, sight singing, ear training, and keyboard harmony. Class meets five times each week.

Four hours credit each semester.

221-222. THEORY. A continuation of the integrated course in music and musicianship. Class meets five times each week.

Prerequisite, Music 121-122.

Four hours credit each semester.

321. ADVANCED HARMONY. Altered chords and a thorough review of seventh, ninth, and eleventh chords, with analysis of material used in modern music. Continued work at the keyboard.

Prerequisite, Music 221-222.

Three hours credit.

322. COUNTERPOINT. A study of the five species in two, three, and four part writing.

Prerequisite, Music 221-222.

Three hours credit.

401. ORCHESTRATION. A study of modern orchestral instruments, an examination of their use by the great masters with practical problems of instrumentation.

Prerequisite, Music 221-222.

Three hours credit.

402. COMPOSITION. Creative writing in smaller vocal and instrumental forms. The college musical organizations serve to make performances possible.

Prerequisite, Music 322.

Three hours credit.

403. FORM AND ANALYSIS. A study of harmonic and contrapuntal forms, with analysis of representative works of music literature.

Prerequisite, Music 222.

Three hours credit.

B. HISTORY AND LITERATURE

131-132. MUSIC APPRECIATION. First semester: This is the basic course for those desiring to become perceptive listeners. Here the concern is for the student's understanding of such basic elements of music as melody, harmony, rhythm, timbre, form, and medium. Second semester: Continuing the study of the elements of music, the emphasis is upon the various forms of significance in music. Beginning with free forms and small character pieces, larger ideas such as the rondo, the variation, and the sonata-allegro, the study reaches the great conjoint forms of music including the sonata, the symphony, the concerto, and the opera. All musical examples are from the masterworks of the 18th, 19th, and 20th centuries.

Three hours each semester.

309. HYMNOLOGY. A study of the hymnody of the Christian Church. Emphasis is directed toward an appreciation of the Church's finest hymns.

Three hours credit.

317. MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE TO J. S. BACH. A survey of the history of music from antiquity to the beginning of the 18th century. Considerable emphases are given the great choral polyphony of the 15th and 16th centuries, and the dramatic and instrumental music of the early and middle Baroque.

Music 91

Prerequisite, Music 131-132.

Three hours credit.

318. MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE OF THE 18TH CENTURY. Emphasizing the achievements of the late Baroque and the great classical age of the late 18th century, the course is largely concerned with the lives and music of four great composers: Bach, Handel, Mozart, and Haydn. Considerable attention is given the great contrapuntal forms of Bach, and to such other forms as the mass, the oratorio, the sonata, the symphony, and the opera.

Prerequisite, Music 131-132.

Three hours credit.

319. MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE OF THE 19TH CENTURY. Consideration is given to the works and lives of such artists as Beethoven, Chopin, Schubert, Brahms, Wagner, and Debussy, as well as the romantic and the impressionistic tempers in art. Principal forms employed are the solo song, the small character piece for the piano, the symphony, the concerto, and Italian and Wagnerian operatic and dramatic music.

Prerequisite, Music 131-132.

Three hours credit.

320. MUSIC HISTORY AND LITERATURE OF THE 20TH CENTURY. Beginning with Richard Strauss and Sibelius, the course familiarizes the student with such great moderns as Stravinsky, Bartok, Prokofief, Shastakovich, Barber, Copland and Menotti. Considerable attention is given to 20th century symphony, and to modern opera. Atonality and expressionism are explored.

Prerequisite, Music 131-132.

Three hours credit.

415. SENIOR STUDIES. Herein opportunity is afforded to the senior majoring in music to develop a project in research. Such work is undertaken in consultation with a faculty adviser. Emphasis is directed toward the development of creative thinking. May be taken only with the permission of the head of the department.

Three hours credit.

C. APPLIED MUSIC

133-134. PIANO CLASS. A beginning class in piano designed primarily for the voice and instrumental majors. No more than eight students to a class. Two classes each week.

One hour credit each semester.

135-136. PRIVATE PIANO INSTRUCTION. Training in the fundamentals 235-236 of technique. Progressive studies are used to make possible a study 335-336 of the world's finest piano literature. Participation in recitals is part 435-436 of the course. Senior recital.

One-half or one hour credit each semester.

141-142. VOICE CLASS. Group instruction for beginning voice students. Emphasis on personal requirements with opportunity for individual performance. Two classes each week.

One hour credit each semester.

145-146. PRIVATE VOICE INSTRUCTION. Training in the fundamentals of 245-246 good singing with a study of various styles of song literature. Per-

345-346 formance in recitals is required once each semester, with fourth year

445-446 voice students presenting a major recital before graduation.

One-half or one hour credit each semester.

151-152. BAND INSTRUMENTS CLASS. Group instruction at the beginning level in band instruments. Two classes each week.

One hour credit each semester.

- 155-156. PRIVATE INSTRUCTION IN BAND INSTRUMENTS. Training in
- 255-256 the fundamentals of performance on one or more instruments of the
- 355-356 band. Progressive studies offer the opportunity for the student to
- 455-456 advance to the level of recital performance. Senior recital required.

One-half or one hour credit each semester.

- 165-166. PRIVATE INSTRUCTION IN STRINGS. Training in the funda-
- 265-266 mentals of performance on one or more of the string instruments.
- 365-366 Progressive studies make possible advancement to the level of recital
- 465-466 performance. Senior recital required.

One-half or one hour credit each semester.

- 175-176. PRIVATE INSTRUCTION IN ORGAN. Satisfactory background in
- 275-276 piano is required to study organ. Additional work in piano may be
- 375-376 required at the discretion of the department head. The organ student
- 475-476 is given the opportunity to work with progressive studies in both church and concert repertory. Senior recital required.

One-half or one hour credit each semester.

- 325-326. CHORAL AND/OR INSTRUMENTAL CONDUCTING. A study of the fundamentals of conducting with frequent opportunity for practical experience.

 Three hours credit each semester.
- 334. PIANO ENSEMBLE. A course designed to explore piano literature for four and eight hands. Required of piano majors. Open to any qualified student. Two classes each week.

One hour credit, with a maximum of two hours credit.

344. VOCAL METHOD CLASS. A study of anatomy relative to vocalization; diction is studied through phonetic spelling. Practical application is made by singing individually and as a class. Required of voice majors. Open to any qualified student. Two classes each week.

One hour credit.

354. INSTRUMENTAL METHOD CLASS. A course designed to study instrumental method. Required of instrumental majors. Open to any qualified student. Two classes each week.

One hour credit.

Philosophy 93

PHILOSOPHY

Associate Professor Faus Assistant Professor Mucklow

A major in philosophy consists of twenty-four semester hours. Philosophy 301-302 shall be elected in the Sophomore or Junior year.

A comprehensive examination to be taken in the second semester of the senior year must be satisfactorily passed as a requirement for graduation.

201-202. ETHICS. An examination of some of the fundamental ethical problems of man and society and the corresponding theories of moral and political philosophy. Readings in philosophical classics.

Three hours credit each semester.

301-302. HISTORY OF PHILOSOPHY. First semester: the history of philosophy from its beginnings among the Greeks to the founding of modern science. Second semester: the history of philosophy continued to the present century. One concern is to understand the fundamental thoughts of the great philosophers, including Plato, Aristotle, St. Thomas Aquinas, Descartes, the British empiricists, and Kant.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202.

Three hours credit each semester.

305-306. LOGIC. Introduction to elementary formal deductive logic and its application to arguments expressed in English. Investigation of selected topics in semantics, such as truth and meaning, and in mathematics and law, such as the nature of mathematical truth and the role of definition in jurisprudence. Examination of the nature of reasoning, through comparison of the kinds of arguments found in such diverse realms of discourse as mathematics, law, and ethics.

Offered in alternate years.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202.

Three hours credit each semester.

307. AESTHETICS. A study of form, harmony and beauty and their relations to the integrated experiences of the individual person.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202.

Three hours credit.

309. AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY. A study of the important trends and chief world-views among American philosophers, including present-day thinkers in this country.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202.

Three hours credit.

310. METAPHYSICS. A study of the chief philosophical world-views with the aim of developing a perspective for the interpretation of experience.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202.

Three hours credit.

312. PHILOSOPHY OF RELIGION. A study of the philosophical foundations of religion, with special emphasis on the intellectual bases for the belief in God, the problem of good-and-evil, human personality, religious experience, and human immortality.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202.

Three hours credit.

316. PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE. An examination of the nature of science. Offered in alternate years.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202.

Three hours credit.

405. SEMINAR IN PHILOSOPHY. An analysis of one philosophical problem, philosopher, or movement. Discussions and papers on a topic such as the freedom of the will, Kant's moral philosophy, or phenomenalism.

Offered in alternate years.

Prerequisite, Philosophy 201-202 and consent of instructor.

Three hours credit.

413-414. STUDIES IN PHILOSOPHY. These studies will involve an intensive research study of the writings of one or more outstanding philosophers. Limited to qualified majors.

Three hours credit each semester.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Associate Professor Busey Assistant Professor Whitehill Instructors Miller, Phillips and Vargo Part-time Instructors Green and Rauff

101-102. PHYSICAL EDUCATION (Men). Basic instruction in fundamentals of sports that include touch-football, soccer, volleyball, table tennis, bowling, badminton, wrestling, swimming, gymnastics and tumbling, softball, tennis, golf and archery.

A regulation four-piece uniform consisting of a Lycoming College T-shirt, royal blue shorts, and a royal blue sweat suit, along with a basketball-type rubber-soled shoe is required for all class work in physical education. This uniform may be secured at The College bookstore.

One hour credit each semester.

201-202. PHYSICAL EDUCATION (Men). More advanced work in the various activities with added emphasis on those sports that have the greatest potential as recreational and leisure time interests in after-college life.

Uniform requirement is the same as for Phys. Ed. 101-102.

One hour credit each semester.

111-112. PHYSICAL EDUCATION (Women). Basic instruction in fundamentals of swimming, tennis, badminton, bowling, table tennis, archery, volleyball, basketball, softball, field hockey, soccer, stunts and tumbling, rhythmics, informal gymnastics, folk, modern and character dancing.

Physics 95

A regulation two-piece uniform consisting of a white blouse and blue shorts, along with a tennis-type, rubber-soled shoe is required for all class work in physical education. This uniform may be secured at The College bookstore.

One hour credit each semester.

211-212. PHYSICAL EDUCATION (Women). More advanced work in activities offered freshmen. A reasonable degree of proficiency in a sport of her choice shall be required.

Uniform requirement is the same as for Phys. Ed. 111-112.

One hour credit each semester.

PHYSICS

Associate Professor Babcock Assistant Professor Remley

The major consists of thirty semester hours.

101-102. GENERAL PHYSICS. A course in the first semester covering mechanics, heat, and sound; and in the second semester, magnetism, electricity, and light. Lectures and recitations based on a standard text accompanied by a systematic course in quantitative laboratory practice. Three hours lecture and two two-hour laboratory periods each week.

Five hours credit each semester.

Prerequisite, Mathematics 101-102 or equivalent.

201. STATICS. The division of mechanics which includes the fundamental conception of a force, the resolution of a force into components, and the composition of forces into a resultant. Both the analytical and the graphic solutions are used.

Prerequisites, Mathematics 205, 305; 306; Physics 101.

Three hours credit.

202. STRENGTH OF MATERIALS. The application of analytical and vector methods to mechanical systems, including moment and shear diagrams.

Prerequisite, Physics 201.

Three hours credit.

301. DYNAMICS. A division of mechanics including forces which act on a body to cause a change in its motion.

Prerequisite, Physics 201.

Three hours credit.

302. METEOROLOGY. A study of basic principles pertaining to the observation and recording of weather data, and the basing of future weather predictions on them.

303. LIGHT. A study of the theories of physical optics and an introduction to modern spectroscopy.

Prerequisite, Physics 101-102. Conference on mathematical background required.

Three hours credit.

305-306. ELECTRICITY AND MAGNETISM. This course treats electrical and magnetic phenomena. Theoretical concepts as well as problems are stressed. Selected topics include circuits, inductances, and capacitance. Laboratory work is included.

Prerequisite, Physics 102.

Four hours credit each semester.

The Alumni Association

The Alumni Association of Lycoming College has a living membership of almost five thousand men and women. It is governed by an Executive Board of five officers and twenty-one members nominated and elected by the membership. It elects annually a member to the Board of Directors of the College for a three-year term. The Assistant to the President of the College directs the activities of the Alumni Office.

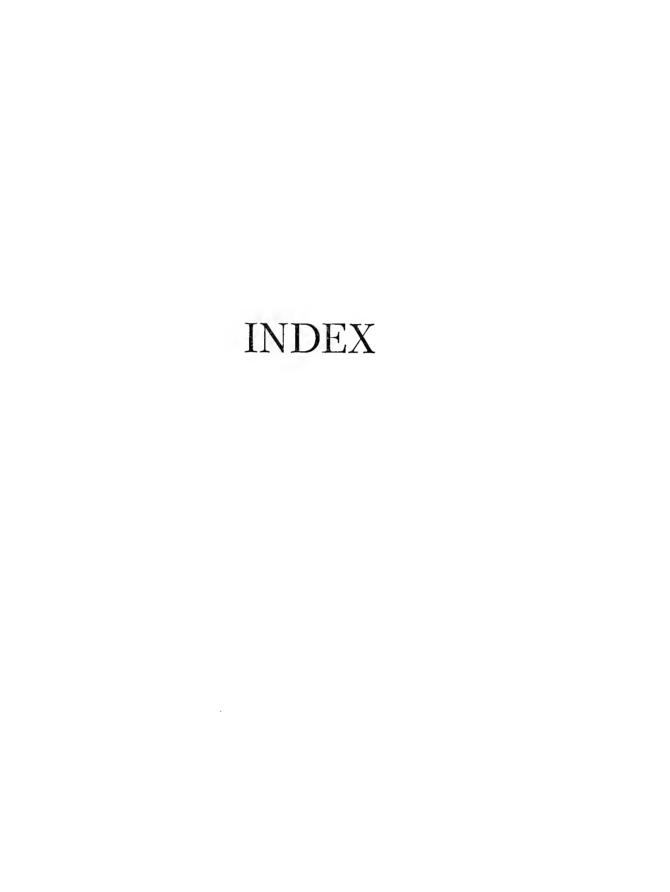

The Alumni Association of Lycoming College has two objectives: (1) to promote the interests of the College, and (2) to foster among its members loyalty and devotion to their alma mater. All persons who have successfully completed one year of study at Lycoming College, or Williamsport-Dickinson Junior College, and all former students of Williamsport-Dickinson Seminary are members of the Association.

The Alumni Office is located in room 208 on the second floor of Old Main. Arrangements for Homecoming, Alumni Day, Class Reunions, Club meetings and similar activities are coordinated through this office. There are active Alumni Clubs in Harrisburg, Philadelphia, and Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Rochester, New York; and Northern New Jersey.

Lycoming College holds Class A, B, and C memberships in the American Alumni Council. Through its Alumni Fund, the Alumni Office is closely associated with the Development Program of the College.

Acting as the representative of alumni on the campus, and working also with undergraduates, the Alumni office aids in keeping alumni informed and interested in the program, growth and activities of the College.

Communications to the Alumni Association should be addressed to the Alumni Office.
